

A method, System and Dressing of Ice-cream & Desserts for enhancing the commercial value further by using the compatible container system. Features include the use of a premium container system, that provides an instant step in presenting multi facets of various desserts, which supplement in a area where speedy delivery in a short time is required, with less inventory includes less infrastructure & coordination of equipments which already exists. However, the infrastructure & equipments has limitations without the method, system and compatible container.